Notes from The Parenting PATH Summer 2019

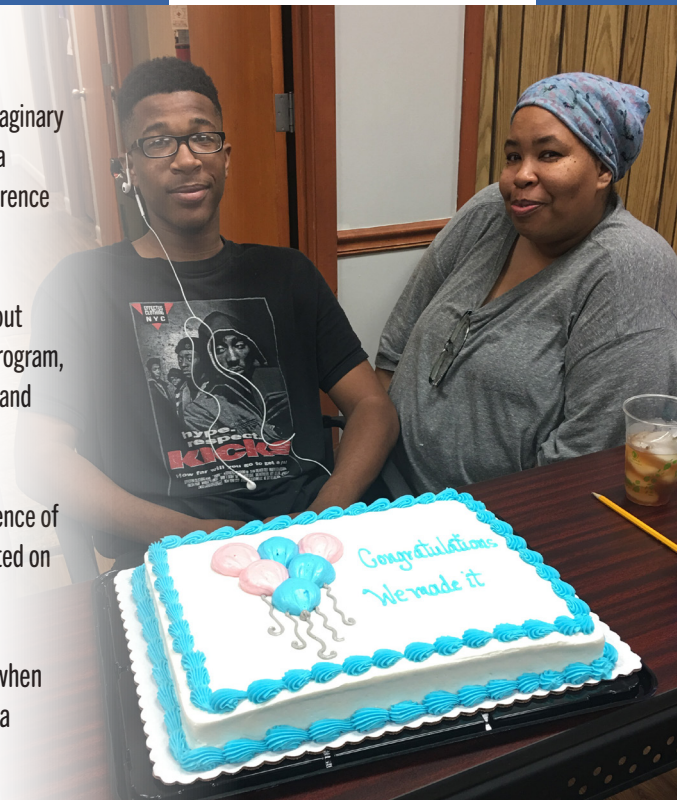

A Letter from the Executive Director

I have always loved stories. As a child, I would beg my Dad to tell me a bedtime story. In fact, one of Dad's imaginary yarns was preferable to Eloise, which was my favorite (but lengthy!) bedtime book. So this month instead of a message from me, one of our families is sharing their story with you. Together, we are making a tangible difference in this community.

Dana and her son Jonathan enrolled in our Parent/Teen Solutions (PTS) program so they could learn more about healthy communication, appropriate behavior and improve their relationship. In order to graduate from the program, parents and teens must complete 12 weeks of class. Due to a change in Dana's employment, work schedule and mental health challenges, it took the pair three attempts to graduate from the PTS program.

Dana and Jonathan were determined to finish. Dana credits the constant encouragement, caring and persistence of staff for giving her family the motivation to keep trying. At graduation, Dana, a cake decorator by trade, insisted on bringing in one of her creations to celebrate the occasion.

Through their time in the PTS Program, Dana has learned to better communicate with her son and trust him when he is on his own. Jonathan has gained respect for his mother and learned the importance of adhering to a curfew. We look forward to hearing the next chapter in their story!

More than 200 supporters joined us on Saturday, March 30th for our inaugural Hope on the Half Shell Oyster Roast at Fiddlin' Fish Brewing. We enjoyed music from hometown bands Quiet Forte and Lisa & the Saints. A local foodie favorite, The Slanted Shed, provided us with fresh Eastern NC oysters and homemade Brunswick Stew. Special thanks to our hosts and sponsors for making our first year a success! Be sure and join us next year for our 2nd Annual event to be held in the spring at Fiddlin' Fish!
